

Maroos

Shipping & Forwarding Company

Full Management

Maroos has engaged in various oil & gas project management developments over the years and today has a full grip on managing and operating marine craft, anchor handling tugs, supply vessels, utility boats, work boats, DSVs & DP vessels, and specialized tugs, barges and landing craft..

Maroos can also supply, organize and manage full range services for ships & offshore facilities, ensuring the safe operation of ships throughout the fleet in accordance with national and international requirements and industry standards.